

WCRB Karate's 2014 Martial Arts Olympics Summer Camp

Imagine your child (ren) standing on the winner's podium receiving his/her honors to a thunderous applause, your applause. This is the all new Martial Arts Olympics Camp were your child enters as themselves and leaves as a virtual Chuck Norris.

The camp is fast paced, fun and exploding with excitement. Day one your child (ren) enter the Olympic Compound and are assigned to an imaginary country. From that point on he/she and their team mates train in the competitive skills of martial arts that include sparring, board breaking (child proof), forms and archery. At the end of the week they enter the arena and compete for top honors to a crowd of thousands well...maybe not thousands but all mom's, dad's, aunts, uncles, grandparents and brothers and sisters that can come. They'll receive prizes awards, badges and more. And don't forget along the way they'll be introduced to other benefits that martial arts training offers like: discipline, concentration, awareness, balance, poise and more!
